KS Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee - Update Shantelle E. Dupree, JJOC Chairperson

It’s hard to believe that 5 years have gone by since the passage of Senate Bill 367 (SB 367). SB 367 was a bipartisan effort by stakeholders invested in healthy communities came together and identified the data, and recognized that children and families have better outcomes if they are supported in their communities versus a facility. Comprehensive juvenile justice reform was never intended to be a simple process. The state of Kansas has faced many short-term challenges to complete this massive task of reinvention of our systems and evidence-based programming with the goal of keeping youth safely in their communities is a process that takes planning, patience, and programming.

As the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee (JJOC) Chair, our committee is responsible for overseeing the implementation of juvenile justice reform in Kansas. To recalibrate the JJOC, we developed a vision and mission statement in 2021. Vision Statement: Improve the lives and well-being of all youth in Kansas.

Mission Statement: The Kansas Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee (JJOC) is a statutorily defined, multidisciplinary team of stakeholders of youth-serving systems. The JJOC is responsible for regularly reviewing information and data on progress and outcomes across all parts of those systems. The JJOC provides policy and funding recommendations and influences stakeholders across agencies and branches of government, on sound, data-driven, evidence-based implementation and sustainability of juvenile justice reforms. The JJOC also restructured and established subcommittees which are the data, communications, and reinvestment subcommittees. These subcommittees assist in fulfilling JJOC’s responsibilities. Although our entire nation has experienced a challenging and trying two years, with the continued support of lawmakers and stakeholders, families are receiving the support they need in their communities.

The JJOC Annual Report for fiscal year 2021 is linked here. In it you will find a full report on the progress and challenges juvenile justice reform has faced. These challenges are met with committed people, organizations, and systems who are working towards the vision statement adopted by the JJOC, “Improve the lives and well-being of all youth in Kansas.”

DOC - Juvenile Community Based Services

This past September Kansas Department of Corrections-Juvenile Services (KDCC-JS) announced the release of two new grant opportunities for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention. These grants are intended to support communities in providing services to youth that are at risk for juvenile delinquency, victimization, and juvenile justice system involvement. These grants were being made available through governmental agencies (i.e., counties, cities, school districts etc.) as well as community-based agencies and service providers (i.e. non-profits) and was a competitive grant process. Applicants could apply for grant funds for both FYs 2022 and 2023.

The Juvenile Crime Community Prevention Grant (JCPG) grants had two tracts.

Matching Funds - The first tract was for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention for Specific Areas of Prevention with a Matching Fund Requirement. Applicants could target any area of juvenile crime prevention and is not limited to any specific geographic area. This grant required a $1-for-$1 local or private funds match. There was $500,000 designated annually for the Matching Fund grants.

Non-Matching Funds - The second tract was for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention while targeting one of four priority areas (i.e., crossover youth, homeless youth, jobs/workforce development for youth, and runaway youth). This grant did not require matching funds. There were $1,000,000 designated annually for the Non-Matching Fund grants.

Restorative Justice Gains Support in America’s Smaller Communities

Although most people associate restorative justice initiatives with larger metropolitan cities, smaller communities have been developing “best practices” that deserve to be highlighted, according to a report from the Institute for Innovation in Prosecution (IIP) at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. In June of 2021, the IIP launched its Beyond Big Cities Initiative with several discussions about restorative justice in smaller communities where jurisdictions handle the majority of criminal justice cases nationwide, the report details. “However, their Read more... Juvenile Justice 2021 Year-End Report

State juvenile justice legislation in 2021 focused on amending ages of juvenile court jurisdiction, addressing due process rights and police interrogations, sealing and expunging records and limiting the amount of fines or fees paid by justice-involved youth. North Dakota enacted a major overhaul of its juvenile code, two states enacted legislation that ensures more limiting the amount of fines or fees paid by justice-involved youth, while the states changed how it handles status offenses. Many of the laws enacted in 2021 reflected the policies and principles laid out in NCSC’s publication Principles of Effective Juvenile Justice: Providing the Framework in the Principles of Effective Juvenile Justice Policy Update released in 2020.
