Additional Juvenile Crime Community Prevention Matching Funds Grant Applications to be Considered

KDOC-JS is seeking applications for the new Juvenile Crime Community Prevention Grant (JCPG) with a $1-for-$1 matching fund requirement for Fiscal Year 2023. These funds will be designated to support local communities in providing evidencebased programs or services to youth that are at risk for juvenile delinquency, victimization, and juvenile justice system involvement. This fund will not be limited to any specific priority area. There is $251,969 still available to be awarded for Fiscal Year 2023.

Both governmental agencies (i.e., counties, judicial districts etc.) as well as community-based agencies and service providers (i.e. non-profits) may apply. Finalized applications along with required supporting documents and completed signature pages will need to be received by April 1, 2022 and should be sent by email to KDOC JS Grants@ks.gov. If you have questions or to receive the JCPG application, contact Jim Johnson by phone at 785-940-1156 or by email at james.johnson2@ks.gov.

DCF Offers Virtual Hours

The Kansas Department for Children and Families (DCF) is offering virtual office hours every Wednesday through the end of March to make the agency more accessible. "DCF offers a variety of valuable and essential services, but it can be difficult to find time during the day to visit our office," DCF Secretary Laura Howard said. "The virtual office hours make it a little easier to ask important questions and learn more about resources available."

Kansans are invited to connect virtually every Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to learn about services available to them and their families. A knowledgeable DCF representative will meet privately and securely with Kansans to answer questions about DCF programs. The meetings will take place on Microsoft Teams at the link: https://shorturl.at/rGIMU. The virtual office hours will end March 30.

KS Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee - Update Shanelle E. Dupree, JJOC Chairperson DCF – Kansas City Regional Director

It's hard to believe that 5 years have gone by since the passage of Senate Bill 367 (SB 367). SB 367 was a bipartisan effort by stakeholders invested in healthy communities came together, looked at the data, and recognized that children and families have better outcomes if they are supported in their communities versus a facility. Comprehensive juvenile justice reform was never intended to be a simple process. The state of Kansas knew it had to make a long-term commitment and investment. Improving the lives of Kansas families and youth through meticulous data collection and upgrades, community engagement and investment, and evidence-based programing with the goal of keeping youth safely in their communities is a process that takes planning, patience, and programing.

As the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee (JJOC) Chair, our committee is responsible for overseeing the implementation of juvenile justice reform in Kansas. To recalibrate the JJOC, we developed a vision and mission statement in 2021.

Vision Statement: Improve the lives and well-being of all youth in Kansas.

Mission Statement: The Kansas Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee (JJOC) is a statutorily defined, multidisciplinary team of stakeholders of youth-serving systems. The JJOC is responsible for regularly reviewing information and data on progress and outcomes across all parts of those systems. The JJOC provides policy and funding recommendations and influences stakeholders across agencies and branches of government, on sound, data-driven, evidence-based implementation and sustainability of juvenile justice reforms.

The JJOC also restructured and established subcommittees which are the data, communications, and reinvestment subcommittees. These subcommittees assist in fulfilling JJOC's responsibilities. Although our entire nation has experienced a challenging and trying two years, with the continued support of lawmakers and stakeholders, families are receiving the support they need in their communities. The JJOC Annual Report for fiscal year 2021 is linked here. In it you will find a full report on the progress and challenges juvenile justice reform has faced. These challenges are met with committed people, organizations, and systems who are working towards the vision statement adopted by the JJOC, "improve the lives and well-being of all youth in Kansas."

The Juvenile Justice Corner Jim Johnson, Program Consultant DOC - Juvenile Community Based Services

This past September Kansas Department of Corrections-Juvenile Services (KDOC-JS) announced the release of two new grant opportunities for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention. These grants are intended to support communities in providing services to youth that are at risk for juvenile delinquency, victimization, and juvenile justice system involvement. These grants were being made available to both governmental agencies (i.e., counties, judicial districts etc.) as well as community-based agencies and service providers (i.e. non-profits) and was a competitive grant process. Applicants could apply for grant funds for both FY's '22 and '23. The Juvenile Crime Community Prevention Grant (JCPG) grants had two tracts.

Matching Funds - The first tract was for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention for Nonspecific Areas of Prevention with a Matching Fund Requirement. Applicants could target any area of juvenile crime prevention and is not limited to any specific priority area. This grant required a $1-for-$1 local or private funds match. There was $500,000 designated annually for the Matching Fund grants.

Non-Matching Funds - The second tract was for Juvenile Crime Community Prevention while targeting one of four priority areas (i.e., crossover youth, homeless youth, jobs/workforce development for youth, and runaway youth). This grant did not require matching funds. There was $1,000,000 designated annually for the Non-Matching Fund grants. Continued next page...

Restorative Justice Gains Support in America's Smaller Communities

Although most people associate restorative justice initiatives with larger metropolitan cities, smaller communities have been developing "best practices" that deserve to be highlighted, according to the Institute for Innovation in Prosecution (IIP) at John Jay College of Criminal Justice. In June of 2021, the IIP launched its Beyond Big Cities Initiative with several discussions about restorative justice in smaller communities. "Smaller jurisdictions handle the majority of criminal justice cases nationwide," the report details. "However, their Read more .... To read the full report Click here ....

Juvenile Justice 2021 Year-End Report

State juvenile justice legislation in 2021 focused on amending ages of juvenile court jurisdiction, addressing due process rights and police interrogations, sealing and expunging records and limiting the amount of fines or fees paid by justice involved youth. North Dakota enacted a major overhaul of its juvenile code, two states enacted legislation that ensures more legislative oversight over juvenile justice institutions and one state changed how it handles status offenses. Many of the laws enacted in 2021 reflected the policies and principles laid out in NCSL's publication Principles of Effective Juvenile Justice Policy update released in 2020. Read more ....
