	SUBJECT: ELECTRONIC MONITORING	PAGE: 1 of 1
REFERENCES: Attorney General's Opinion 1993-011	DATE ADOPTED: 7-1-2006 DATE AMENDED: 3-27-2023 DATE REVIEWED: 3-15-2023

STANDARD: Community Supervision Agencies that utilize electronic monitoring shall develop written policy, procedure and practice to govern its use.

For crossover youth, notification shall be provided to the Department for Children and Families (DCF) and/or the foster care case management provider when a youth is placed on electronic monitoring.

DISCUSSION: If this service is provided to youth through the Community Supervision Agency, the parent/guardian and youth shall be educated on this service and their responsibilities.

Crossover youth is defined as any youth aged 10 or older with any level of concurrent involvement with the child welfare system (i.e., out of home placement, an assigned investigation of alleged abuse or neglect with a young person named as the alleged perpetrator, and/or participating in voluntary/preventive services cases that are open for services) system and juvenile justice (i.e., court ordered community supervision, and Immediate Intervention Programs).

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies operating through the board of county commissioners and their employees/contractors and the juvenile offenders under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies, or the board of county commissioners, or their employees/contractors, or juvenile offenders, or an independent duty owed by the Kansas Department of Corrections- Division of Juvenile Services to community supervision agencies operating through the board of county commissioners or their employees/contractors, supervised juvenile offenders or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
