

Community Supervision Standards Kansas Department of Corrections- Division of Juvenile Services State of Kansas	CHAPTER: SUPERVISION	STANDARD NO. CSS-04-129
	SUBJECT: VIOLATIONS OF SUPERVISION AND THE REVOCATION PROCESS	PAGE: 1 of 1
REFERENCES: K.S.A. 38-2368	DATE ADOPTED:	7-1-2006
	DATE AMENDED:	4-24-2023
	DATE REVIEWED:	4-13-2023

STANDARD: Written policy, procedure, and practice shall require the Community Supervision Agency to address all violations of supervision and define the revocation process in accordance with Kansas Statute, court orders of disposition, and/or other legal authority.

All violations of supervision shall be addressed with the juvenile. Community Supervision Agency Officers shall respond immediately to any known or reported violations of supervision which present a threat to public safety and to all other violations within three (3) business days.

Supervisory approval shall be required for all sanctions, whether internal and/or the initiation of the revocation process with the Court.

All youth in the process of revocation shall continue to be supervised.

The Community Supervision Agency Officer shall not remove a juvenile from the home until a hearing has been held and/or the sentencing Court authorizes a placement change.

DISCUSSION: Supervisory approval helps to ensure internal consistency in the management of violators.

The type of violation should correspond to the appropriate level of sanction. Minor violations may include but are not limited to:

- Whereabouts known but not reporting as directed
- Failure to make Court payments within a prescribed period of time
- Positive drug screen or admission of usage

Major violations may include but are not limited to:

- New crimes, felony or misdemeanor
- Unsuccessful discharge from placement, including absconding
- Whereabouts unknown for any period of time
- Persistent failure or refusal to comply with supervision conditions

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies operating through the board of county commissioners and their employees/contractors and the juvenile offenders under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies, or the board of county commissioners, or their employees/contractors, or juvenile offenders, or an independent duty owed by the Kansas Department of Corrections- Division of Juvenile Services to community supervision agencies operating through the board of county commissioners or their employees/contractors, supervised juvenile offenders or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
