STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice shall govern eligibility for each Immediate Intervention Program (IIP).

At a minimum, each jurisdiction must have an IIP for youth who meet the following criteria:

- Charged with a misdemeanor or unlawful sexual relations, pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2346(b);
- Has no prior adjudications; and
- Goes through Juvenile Intake and Assessment System (JIAS) or is referred by either the county/district attorney or court.

Not completing an intake at JIAS shall not automatically result in case filing by the county/district attorney's office and shall not result in ineligibility for any pre-file IIP. Local rule shall define a process between the county/district attorney, JIAS and/or IIP to establish contact with the youth and their family.

ADDITIONAL ELIGIBILITY: A youth may also participate in an IIP if the youth is referred by the county/district attorney pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2346(d).

Each director of JIAS in collaboration with the county/district attorney may develop guidelines to include offenders beyond those listed above to be eligible for referral to IIP's. Written eligibility requirements shall specify if each IIP is pre and/or post-file.

The court, pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2344, has a duty to inform youth of their right to be offered an IIP. In some instances, IIP's will receive referrals from the court as a result of this process.
