

STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice shall require Community Supervision Agencies to have a written description and organizational chart that reflects the current structure of authority, responsibility and accountability within the agency. These documents shall be reviewed annually and updated as needed.

DISCUSSION: A current organizational chart is necessary for providing a clear administrative picture. The chart should reflect the grouping of similar functions, the effective span of control, lines of authority and an orderly channel of communication.