DECISION MAKING: Restoration of Withheld Good Time, Forfeited Good Time, and Program Credit

Original Date Issued: 02-07-23 Replaces IMPP Issued: N/A CURRENT EFFECTIVE DATE: 02-07-23

Approved By: , Secretary Next Scheduled Review: 02/2026

POLICY

In accordance with K.A.R. 44-6-115a and 44-6-125, on and after February 1, 2013, the Secretary of Corrections may authorize the restoration of good time credits that have been withheld or forfeited on the prison portion of a resident's sentence. Good time withheld for any review period commencing before that date is not to be restored. Good time and program credits forfeited as a result of a penalty imposed by a facility disciplinary hearing officer is not to be restored to a resident without the approval of the Secretary or Secretary's Designee, and in accordance with criteria and procedures set forth herein.

DEFINITIONS

Forfeited Credits: Good time or program credits previously awarded that are removed as a disciplinary sanction and consequent reinstatement of a term of actual imprisonment.

Good Time: Sentence credits earned for good behavior and program participation which, when applied to the incarceration portion of the sentence, serve to reduce the incarceration term, and when applied to certain post-incarceration periods, serve to reduce the sentence discharge date.

Program Credits: The pool of credits that serve to decrease the term of actual imprisonment awarded for completion of a program designated by the Secretary of Corrections. Program credits earned and retained while in prison is to be added to the resident's post release supervision period.

Program Management Committee (PMC): A facility panel, consisting of the warden or designee and an administrative/supervisory representative from the programs and the operations divisions of the facility, responsible to review and approve or deny exceptions to the established custody classification criteria, amendments to resident program agreements, furlough applications and transfer request/recommendations.

Restoration: Awarding of good time and program credits previously withheld or forfeited.

Withheld Good Time: All or part of the allocation of credits available for the time period under review that is not awarded by the unit team, as approved by the warden or his/her designee.

PROCEDURES

I. Eligibility

- A. Residents who meet all of the following criteria may apply for restoration of good time credits that were previously withheld or forfeited and for program credits that were forfeited:
1. Full restitution, if any, has been made for actions related to the violation for which the resident is seeking restoration of withheld or forfeited good time;
 2. There are no pending disciplinary charges against the resident at the time of the application;
 3. The resident has received no disciplinary convictions six (6) months prior to application for restoration of withheld good time or forfeited good time/program credit; and
 4. If Sex Offender Treatment Program (SOP) is a required program, it has been completed prior to the request for restoration.
 5. There is not a prior request for restoration made during the current incarceration.
- B. In the instance of forfeited good time or program credits, the forfeiture imposed did not meet standards of basic fairness, equity, or justice, in that the amount of the forfeiture was disproportionate to the seriousness of the factual circumstances underlying the offense, including the resident's prior disciplinary history and entire facility and supervision record, or was disproportionate to a forfeiture imposed upon another resident in the same circumstances.

II. Application Procedure for Residents Who Wish to be Considered for Restoration of Good Time Credits or Program Credits.

- A. Residents who meet the criteria in section I may submit a written request to their assigned unit team counselor. The resident must:
1. Make an appointment with his/her assigned unit team counselor to submit the written request during the regularly scheduled 120- day or annual review; and
 2. Attend the scheduled appointment to present the written request, including any supporting documents to his/her assigned unit team counselor.

III. Required Facility Staff Action

- A. The assigned unit team counselor is to meet with the resident to accept and review the written request for restoration of good time/program credits during the resident's regularly scheduled 120-day/annual review.
- B. The assigned unit team counselor is to include a recommendation for approval/disapproval in the comment section of the 120-day/annual review, to include the amount of days requested and whether it is from withholding or a forfeiture, and forward the written request with supporting documentation to the PMC for final facility approval on the 120-day/annual review.
- C. Facility PMC is to review the written request and supporting documents and consider the unit team comments when making their decision to approve or disapprove the application.
- D. The PMC is to record their approval or disapproval with any comments on the 120-day/annual review.
1. All requests for restoration of withheld or forfeited goodtime/program credit, whether approved or denied at the facility level, are to be forwarded to the Deputy Secretary of Facility Management.

IV. Decision

- A. The Secretary of Corrections or his/her designee is to review the application and staff comments.
1. If the application is approved, the amount of credit to be restored is to be noted on the application, and the Secretary's Designee is to cause the document to be placed into the resident's master file with a copy sent to the resident via the facility classification administrator.
 2. If the application is not approved, the disapproval is to be noted on the application, the application is to be entered into the resident's electronic central file, and the application is to be returned to the resident via the facility classification administrator.
 3. The decision of the Secretary of Corrections or his/her designee is to be final, and there is to be no appeal process.

V. Forfeiture of restored credits

- A. Good time credits and program credits that have been restored pursuant to this policy may be subject to forfeiture for disciplinary convictions arising out of conduct occurring after the date of restoration.

VI. This IMPP must serve as final policy in all departmental facilities, and no General Orders shall be developed or implemented on this subject.

NOTE: The policy and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish directives and guidelines for staff, residents, and offenders and those entities that are contractually bound to adhere to them.
