SECURITY AND CONTROL: Control of Resident Personal Property

Original Date Issued: 04-09-21 Replaces IMPP Issued: 12-08-21 CURRENT EFFECTIVE DATE: 04-14-22

Approved By:  Secretary Next Scheduled Review: 07/2023

POLICY

Residents incarcerated at a Department of Corrections correctional facility are permitted to possess and obtain a reasonable amount of personal property. The allowable personal property a resident can possess must not constitute a threat to the safety, order and security of the facility, staff, residents and public.

DEFINITIONS

Admission Property: That personal property which may be brought with the resident at the time of admission to KDOC custody.

Canteen: A store through which residents are provided an opportunity to purchase allowable hygiene, snack and property items. Such a store is managed by Kansas Correctional Industries in partnership with a contracted vendor. Local department stores may be designated to serve as canteens for residents in Work Release Centers only.

Canteen Price (CP): The current cost to the resident of an approved item of personal property available through the canteen or through a local vendor approved by the Warden.

Consumable Limitation (CL): A $150.00 combined value of all items for which a consumable limitation is indicated on Attachment B but does not include consumable handicraft items.

Consumable Property: That personal property which does not require registration upon receipt but must be recorded on property inventory forms any time a resident's property is inventoried. All such property is subject to the consumable limitation.

Intake Property: That personal property which may be possessed by a resident while on Intake Level pursuant to IMPP 11-101A.

Inventory: A detailed listing of property that is actually in a resident's possession. To make a detailed listing of any resident's property.

Legal Material: That material concerning a pending or anticipated case, wherein the resident is or may be a party, and includes pleadings, transcripts, books, notes, drafts, and correspondence to and from attorneys, courts, and public officials.

Post-Release Supervision: Refers only to the supervision of residents released as the result of Sentencing Guidelines.

Publication: An item to include book, magazine, journal, periodical, newspaper, calendar, intended for public access through mass distribution and or available for public purchase. Personal correspondence and personal photographs are not considered publications.

Register: The action of recording an item of property at the time it is received.

Registered Property: That property which must be recorded in the resident's property record upon receipt.

Soft Metal Cans: Containers with tops that are manufactured with a means for removing the top without the use of a mechanical can opener; i.e., tops may be removed with a pull-tab, twist-top, or other device that is attached to the can.

Work Release Program: For purposes of this policy, refers to a traditional program of non-prison-based employment within a community setting utilizing residents with not more than a minimum custody classification. This does not include resident employment with Kansas Correctional Industries or any private industry employment program, as defined by IMPP 10-109A.

 - a. The purchase and possession of such medications are subject to the "consumable limitation" provision of this IMPP.
 - b. In accordance with the provisions of IMPP 04-108D, these canteen items may be made available after consultation with the Health Authority and consistent with security and operational concerns at the discretion of the Warden.
 - c. The medication items, purchased through the canteen, can be transferable between facilities as allowable personal property unless there is a documented security reason to deny such items.

B. Safeguarding and Control of Personal Property

1. Any property which, in the original state or through alterations or additions, displays graphics, depicts, or mentions the glorification of drugs, alcohol, sexually explicit materials, or symbols associated with unsanctioned group related activity is prohibited.
2. Personal property is to be controlled through a formal system of acquisition, inventory, registration and identification, storage, and disposal.
 - a. Unauthorized and unregistered property items are considered contraband.
 - b. Each facility is to establish and maintain an area for the secure storage of resident property that is received, abandoned, or confiscated due to disciplinary or other administrative actions.
3. Resident assumes the responsibility for the care and control of all properly inventoried and registered personal property.
 - a. The Department is to take reasonable measures to prevent damage to resident property but must not assume liability for the loss or damage of allowable property possessed by resident.

III. Allowable Property

A. Admission Property-

1. All residents delivered to KDOC custody by a Kansas county sheriff are permitted to retain only that personal property specified on the Admission Property List (Attachment H) during their orientation to the receiving facility.
 - a. Any personal property in such residents possess upon admission that is not authorized, is to be returned to the sheriff or agent delivering the resident.
 - b. Any item returned to the sheriff or agent delivering a resident is to be recorded on the Request/Authorization to Remove Personal Property form (Attachment F) and signed by the party receiving said property.
 - c. The Warden, or designee, overseeing facilities with male and female Reception and Diagnostic Units (RDU's) are responsible for providing each county Sheriff with a current copy of Attachment H and any subsequent revisions.
2. Residents delivered to KDOC custody by any agent or agency other than a Kansas county Sheriff may be permitted to retain any personal property so long as it is an authorized post intake item and conforms with the specifications shown in Post Intake Property List (Attachment B).
 - a. Authorized property which cannot be in the resident's possession due to incentive level, security/custody considerations, or limitations required by the facility placement is to be stored by the receiving facility.
 - b. Any such property that does not conform is to be removed in accordance with the provisions of Section XI. of this policy.
3. Residents refusing evaluation or who were convicted of a class I or II disciplinary violation while at RDU are to have their property limited to admission property only.

B. Post Intake Property

1. Upon completion of Intake Level per IMPP 11-101A, residents are permitted to possess items of personal property in accordance with the specifications, quantity limits and value limits set out in Attachment A and a fan, hot pot, and tennis shoes, with the following exceptions:
 - a. Residents transferred to a Reception and Diagnostic Unit from another KDOC facility are limited to only the Admission Property List (Attachment H).
 - b. Residents in disciplinary segregation are only to have access to the basic personal hygiene items as allowed by IMPPs 12-127D and 20-101A.
 - c. Residents placed in administrative restrictive housing after the effective date of this policy, are allowed only the property listed in Attachment J, which may be further limited by facility general order.
 - d. Residents in administrative restrictive housing as a suicide or special security risk are limited to only those items specified in facility general orders for residents in that status.
 - e. Residents in disciplinary or administrative restrictive housing are not permitted access to either personal or facility owned typewriters.
 - (1) All correspondence and/or legal material drafted by restrictive housing residents are to be prepared using the writing instruments and paper ordinarily provided to residents within their particular restrictive housing status.

- (2) Any typewriter possessed by a resident as an item of personal property is to be removed from his/her possession prior to placement in restrictive housing, stored by the facility, and returned to the resident upon his/her removal from restrictive housing.
2. Except as provided in Section III.B.3. below, it is the responsibility of the Director of Kansas Correctional Industries to determine which items of allowable personal property are stocked in the canteen, based upon space available and historical demand for a particular item by the facility population.
 - a. If a Warden determines residents may purchase a padlock from the canteen, in light of the inclusion of one (1) padlock in the list of allowable post intake property (see Attachment B), the following is to apply:
 - (1) Only "Master" brand series 51 combination padlocks with key are to be sold in the canteen.
3. Postage stamps are only permitted as a canteen purchase item, and any allowable personal property, which is categorized as an "appliance" in Attachment B may be either stocked in the canteen or made available for purchase by special purchase order.
4. Work Release Facilities may utilize local merchants as a source for such personal property items as are listed in Attachment B as canteen purchase items.
5. Except as provided in Section III.B.3. above, it is the responsibility of the Warden of the facility to determine and specify in General Orders the manner in which allowable personal property may be obtained.
 - a. The Warden has the discretionary authority to limit or disapprove access to any item subject to the consumable limitation (CL) except that residents are permitted to exhaust the supply of such property, which they bring with them at the time of transfer.
 - b. Post-release supervision conditions violators with no new sentence are not permitted to possess appliances or items of personal clothing identified in Attachment B.
6. The Warden may provide storage for some items of resident property that are determined unnecessary for the resident's use while at a particular facility but which the resident wishes to retain on the property inventory.

C. Legal Material

1. Residents are permitted to possess that quantity of legal material/documents that fits in one (1) box.
 - a. The box is not to exceed 18" (L) x 12" (W) x 6" (D) in size.

 - c. Upon request of the resident, the facility is to provide the resident with a document storage box.
2. Residents who possess legal materials in such a quantity that it cannot be contained in the legal material/document box may utilize space within the personal property storage box to retain the excess.

- a. All personal property and excess legal materials must be contained within the transport/storage box.
 - (1) In the event the resident has chosen to retain legal materials in such an amount that personal property items and legal material combined exceed the space available in the transport/storage box:
 - (a) It is left to the resident to choose which legal materials or personal property is to be removed to achieve compliance with the above policy.
 - i. The resident is to be directed by the facility Property Officer to identify the legal materials or personal property to be removed per Section XI. The resident is to be advised that the Warden or designee determines which items are to be removed if the resident refuses to make a choice or makes a choice that does not accomplish compliance.
 - (b) In the event the selection becomes the responsibility of the Warden or designee, the selection is to concentrate on items of personal property of combined dimensions so that the amount removed is no greater mass than that of the excess legal materials.
 - (c) If all of a resident's personal property items have been removed from the facility to provide space for legal materials, and, an excess of legal materials remain, the Property Officer can advise the resident of the need to identify a quantity of legal materials to be removed in accordance with Section XI.
 - i. The resident is to be advised that his/her failure to make an appropriate choice of a sufficient quantity of material to comply with this policy that requires the Warden with facility legal counsel or designee with facility legal counsel to make such a determination per subsection (a), above.
 - ii. The legal material selected for removal shall not be read by any staff member facilitating the reduction excess items.
 - (d) Residents who have been required to reduce their legal material amount to the maximum quantity contained in both the transport/storage box and the legal material/document box may continue to receive legal materials in the mail.
 - i. If new legal material is received the resident is to be notified by the facility Property Officer that an equal amount of legal materials must be removed from the facility within five (5) working days (excluding weekends and holidays) of the resident's receipt of new legal material.
 - ii. The resident is to be provided the opportunity to determine which legal materials are to be removed.
 - iii. Failure of the resident to make a choice may result in the Warden or designee making the determination, per Section III.C II.2.a.(c)i. above.
- b. The legal material/document box is to be utilized for legal materials only and may not be utilized for resident personal property.

3. The possession of legal materials by residents in restrictive housing may be limited, but access is to be permitted upon request, on a reasonable time and manner consistent with the security and order of the facility.

D. Religious Material

1. Residents are permitted to possess religious items and materials as specified in Attachment B and/or in accordance with provisions of IMPP 10-110D.

 - 2. All property received after the resident's admission must be registered at the time of receipt, using the Resident Property Receipt form (Attachment E).
- F. For items of property received after the intake period, residents are required to provide evidence of the item's value. This evidence may be in the form of:
 - 1. A receipt from the store where the item was purchased; or
 - 2. The resident's declaration of value, Attachment E, as witnessed by the Property Officer on duty.
 - a. When an item's declared value is clearly excessive or inaccurate, the resident may be required to produce other proof of value before being allowed to receive the property.
- G. Any property of value in excess of $15.00 must be engraved with the resident's number.
 - 1. If the item cannot be engraved, it must be marked in indelible ink.
 - 2. Small items, such as jewelry and prosthetic devices, which cannot be marked, are subject only to recording on the resident's property record.

- a. The description and value of such an item must be recorded on the resident's property record.

IX. Inventory of Resident Property

- A. Any time a resident's property is taken into the custody of an employee for storage, transfer, or any other reason, a complete inventory record of the property must be made.
 1. All items of the resident's property must be recorded on the Resident Personal Property Inventory form, Attachment D.
 - a. Whenever a resident's personal property is inventoried all items of property must be recorded on the Resident Personal Property Inventory form, including those, which the resident is wearing or has physical possession of at the time the inventory is taken.
 2. Unless precluded for security reasons, the resident must be present at the time of the inventory.
 - a. If the resident is not present at the time the inventory is taken, the reason must be documented in the resident's property file on the inventory form.
 - b. Residents must not be used to pack or assist in the packing of property belonging to another resident.
 3. The resident must sign the completed inventory form attesting to its accuracy. Any discrepancies are to be noted on the inventory.
 4. The inventory must be checked against the previous Resident Personal Property Inventory form to ensure that all items of registered property are present. The resident must be required to account for any discrepancies at this time.
 5. The resident must sign each page of the inventory form, Attachment D.
 6. The resident must receive a copy of the completed inventory form.
 7. The property must be packed into the box prescribed in Section V.A.1. and sealed in the presence of the resident, if possible.
 8. Staff must complete a KDOC Electronics Checklist (Attachment I) for electronic items.
- B. When the property is returned to the resident, he/she must sign the original inventory verifying that all property has been returned.
 1. It is the responsibility of the resident to report any discrepancies at the time the property is returned.
 2. Discrepancies are to be noted by the resident on the inventory form and witnessed by the Property Officer.
 3. Staff must complete a KDOC Electronic Checklist (Attachment I) for electronic items.
- C. Each facility must maintain a secure property storage area.
 1. Access to this area must be strictly controlled.
 2. Residents must not have access to this area unless under continuing supervision of staff.

X. Transfer of Resident Personal Property

- A. Allowable property items are transferable between all KDOC facilities consistent with the security level of the receiving facility and the incentive level per IMPP 11-101A and security/custody status of the resident in accordance with Section III.C.
 - 1. Upon transfer between KDOC facilities, residents are permitted to retain property listed in Attachment B.
 - a. All property transferred must be inventoried and packed in accordance with Section VIII.
- B. Upon transfer from any KDOC facility to Larned State Security Hospital for any reason, only that property which is listed in Attachment C can be transferred with the resident.
 - 1. All other property, except food items, must be stored at the sending facility until such time as the resident returns or is otherwise released from the custody of the Secretary of Corrections.
 - 2. All food items must be removed from the resident's property and disposed of pursuant to Section IX.
- C. Upon a resident's removal from a work release program, the resident's property must be packed and inventoried.
 - 1. Property listed in Attachment B as permissible only in work release must be separated and recorded on a property removal form.
 - 2. Property items listed in Attachment B as permissible only to medium and minimum female residents must be separated and recorded on a property removal form if a female resident is to be transferred to the maximum facility and her security classification status is revised to maximum.
 - 3. The property is then to be disposed of in accordance with Section XI.
 - 4. All other property permitted on Attachment B must accompany the resident.
- D. The resident's name, number and destination must be affixed to the transport/storage box and the legal material/document storage box with a shipping label glued/taped in a secure manner.
 - 1. Care must be taken to ensure the transportation/storage box and legal material/document box is securely sealed prior to delivery to the Transportation Unit.
 - 2. Shipping labels are to be legible and affixed in such a manner that the containers may be reused for other resident's property storage or transfer.

XI. Removal of Property from a Correctional Facility

- A. At any time property is removed from the facility, not accepted, or destroyed at the resident's or facility's request, it must be documented on the Request/Authorization to Remove Personal Property form (Attachment F). Such items shall be held a minimum of 45 days after administrative relief has been exhausted by the resident.
- B. Property may be removed from the facility by:
 - 1. Mailing the property to an address of the resident's choosing at the resident's expense or, with the approval of the Warden, at the facility's expense.
 - 2. Donating the property to a charitable organization.
 - 3. Having the property picked up by an authorized person approved by the Warden.

4. Removing and taking the property to a sponsor's address on an approved furlough.
 5. If the resident refuses to designate an approved means of removal, the Warden or designee can make the designation.
- C. Facility General Orders are to specify a procedure whereby personal property is removed from the facility.
- D. A resident may authorize the destruction of an item of property.
- E. Personal property left at a facility by a resident is considered abandoned property pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,135.
1. Any personal property not claimed by a resident or authorized representative within 90 days of a resident's release from custody is considered abandoned property.
 2. Any personal property left at a facility by a resident who has escaped from custody is immediately determined to be abandoned property.
 3. Any personal property determined to be abandoned, pursuant to K.S.A. 75-52,135 must be reported to the State Treasurer, pursuant to K.S.A. 58-3950.
 - a. The State Treasurer may dispose of the abandoned resident property in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 58-3934 et seq., and amendments thereto.
 - b. The State Treasurer requires wedding bands to be sent to them in compliance with K.S.A. 75-52, 135. All other abandoned property may be disposed of in a manner determined by Secretary of Corrections or designee.

XII. Implementation

- A. On and after the effective date of this IMPP, residents are allowed to receive only that property which is permitted by the provisions of these procedures.
- B. Residents who on April 15, 1991 were in possession of personal property approved under previous policies, or who prior to November 7, 1995 were in possession of certain general handicraft tools as specified within IMPP 10-133, Section IV.D., must be permitted to retain that property until:
1. They are transferred to another facility;
 2. They are convicted of a disciplinary violation involving a particular item of such property; or,
 3. Repair or replacement of such property becomes necessary (excluding prosthetic or other devices prescribed by any facility Health Authority, or the general handicraft tools referenced within Procedure X.B., above).
- C. If it becomes necessary, for any reason, to inventory a resident's personal property before transfer to another facility, the Special Property Inventory form (Attachment G), is to be used to document the possession of personal property approved under previous policies.
1. Special Property Inventory forms are considered null and void upon transfer to another facility at which time a resident's personal property must fully comply with the provisions of this IMPP.
- D. All residents who are transferred to another facility within the Kansas Department of Corrections after the effective date of this IMPP are permitted to retain only those property items appropriate to the receiving facility and custody level as described in Attachment B.

NOTE: The policy and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish directives and guidelines for staff, residents and offenders and those entities that are contractually bound to adhere to them.
