Secretary's Message

As many have expressed, in many settings and circumstances, this has been a year unlike any in memory. For our employees, individuals under supervision in the community, facility residents and families, and all our stakeholders, the ongoing impact of the coronavirus pandemic and the labor market's effect on our staffing levels, are truly unprecedented. While those challenges have been profound, through it all our employees continue to provide outstanding public service to the citizens of the State of Kansas.

This year brought challenges to every area of our work and lives, and by extension the lives of every individual in Kansas and indeed across the globe. More than ever, we are required to be agile and flexible – both as individuals and as an organization – and be willing to pivot and change the tactics and strategies we employ. With our new strategic plan Pathway for Success as our guide, we are gaining the necessary wisdom and momentum for change and challenging our current routines and processes. Corrections is a risk management business, but that doesn't mean we avoid change. We need to explore and implement new programs and practices that will benefit everyone involved. And we must do this while maintaining the highest standards of our profession.

We are rising to meet these challenges while recognizing that working in corrections is a responsibility like no other. For those who work directly with residents and in our facilities, their work requires constant vigilance for the safety and security for all involved. That brings a level of pressure not experienced in other workplaces. The same is true of our staff who work in parole and community settings, and for those who interact with victims, families and loved ones. Working with justice involved individuals is stressful, no matter what your role may be. Yet this work can be incredibly rewarding as we strive to change lives and bring hope to someone who can't see a future beyond their current circumstances.

It is an honor for each of us at KDOC to serve the citizens of Kansas. I am proud of the collective accomplishments of the employees of the Kansas Department of Corrections and the extraordinary commitment each has brought to bear under the most challenging of circumstances. It is my privilege to share some of the highlights of Fiscal Year 2021 in this annual report as we continue to work toward our vision of Transforming Lives for the Safety of All.

Year in Review

In the fall of 2020, seven Kansas colleges were selected as Second Chance Pell ESI sites, meaning they could serve incarcerated students who were eligible for financial aid through Pell funding. Up to $2,229,125 million is available for this purpose. This was the second round of awards through the U.S. Department of Education, with 67 colleges selected from 180 applicants. Kansas received the highest number of awards in the nation. In December of 2020, the United States Congress passed legislation that will remove restrictions on access to Pell grants for incarcerated persons beginning in 2023, a welcome change that will further increase opportunities in the future.

KDOC was selected for a second year to receive grant funding from the Kansas Leadership Center (KLC) as a Leadership Transformation Grant Partner. Last year 37 staff completed this training and this year 38 additional staff began the first step in the training. Staff development and training are focus areas within KDOC's strategic plan, Pathway for Success. This partnership increases opportunities for staff to develop skills to lead in any situation, mobilize others in positive ways and create change for future success.

The U.S. Department of Justice awarded a $996,679 grant to the department to expand substance abuse programming and case management for 150 residents in restrictive housing at the El Dorado and Lansing correctional facilities. The four-year grant partners KDOC with the University of Cincinnati Corrections Institute (UCCI) in an intensive adult reentry program called Innovations in Reentry Initiative: Building System Capacity and Testing Strategies to Reduce Recidivism.

Thanks to the leadership of Governor Laura Kelly and support of public health officials, the first doses of COVID-19 vaccine were administered for staff and facility residents in December of 2020. And as supplies of the vaccine increased, our staff and residents were given high priority to have access to the vaccine which continued throughout the year.

Year in Review

In the fall of 2020, KDOC conducted listening tours to gather information and insight from the employees, supervisors/managers, community partners, facility residents, individuals on parole, as well as specific groups focused on diversity and gender to help inform our agency strategy for the future. This informed our new vision and mission statements in our Pathway for Success guiding framework and the creation of Strategic Implementation Teams (SIT) with membership from across the department providing an active staff voice in planning the future of our department.

The spring of 2021 saw the launch of Phase I of the Athena information system as a replacement for the aged TOADS, JJIAMS, and CASIMS systems used in communities in providing supervision of juveniles and adults. In addition, the Legislature appropriated funding to KDOC to begin work on Phase II which will replace the OMIS and JCFS systems. That launched in the fall of 2021 with deployment scheduled in calendar year 2023.

In April, the Topeka Correctional Facility launched a new private industry partnership in which residents at the facility now have an opportunity to earn a living wage and develop essential job skills that will increase their chances of success upon release from the facility. KDOC and Warden Geither had identified a disparity in access to such opportunities between our women and men residents. Up to 150 residents are now employed through this new partnership, a breakthrough in addressing this need for residents at TCF.

In June, Governor Laura Kelly, Secretary Zmuda and key stakeholders gathered at the Lansing Correctional Facility to mark the opening of the new Career Campus building for minimum- security residents and the Governor's signature of House Bill 2401 (HB2401). HB2401 provides a structure for new public private partnerships and allows KDOC to establish a nonprofit entity for fundraising, for the construction of a Career Campus at the maximum/medium security unit.

Effective Programs and Correctional Practices

Core principles and evidence-based practices allow for programming that reduces recidivism. Residents can receive program credit, both of which safely support population management:

- Assess for risk
- Target interventions to areas of criminogenic (crime-producing) need
- Use cognitive skills-building teaching/learning, with skills practice
- Use motivational interviewing, effective use of authority, disrupt cognitive distortions
- Address responsivity
- Identify learning styles, or factors that interfere with learning such as language, intellect or life situations
- Allow for timely and quality release and discharge planning
- Observe the work with coaching and feedback for fidelity
- Provide for data collection and evaluation

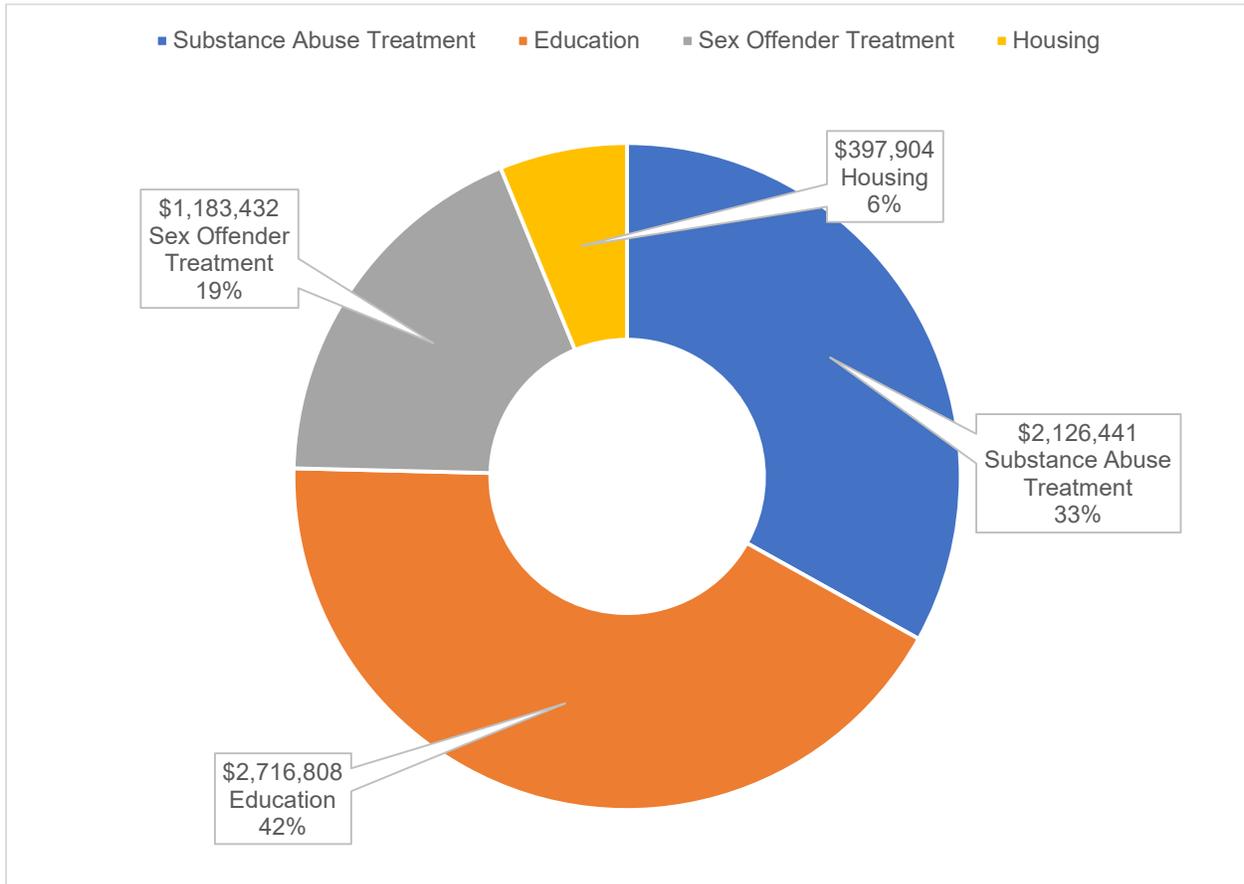

Effective Release Planning: The First 30 Days Out

More than 95% of residents have a release plan with specialized services for mental health needs from discharge planners. Key ingredients of effective release plans:

- Provides a stable and safe residence plan, focusing on the physical and social environments
- Addresses basic needs (food, water, clothing, shelter)
- Identifies pro-social influences (natural supports) to assist in reintegration, focusing on the first days out
- Provides structure for the first 24 hours, week and month for a step down from incarceration
- Addresses the resident's leisure time and companions to reduce risk of relapse
- Establishes links to behavioral health providers, including a plan for medication
- Ensures early/sufficient contact with parole officer for monitoring areas of risk/need
- Builds on work in the facility, with a focus on success
- Addresses employment plan to achieve sustained employment (ID, transportation)
- Helps address the increase in responsibility, obligations and needs in the shift to the community
